YES or NO

Y _ 1. Do verse 1 and 5 suggest that Life and Light come from God and Christ?

Y _ 2. Does the water of life, the fruitful tree of life, the description given in this chapter somewhat make you think of the garden of Eden, and paradise regained?

Y _ 3. Do you think that Paradise for man will be restored?

N _ 4. Do you think any one will be in God’s city if he ignores God’s Word.

N _ 5. Do you believe men should worship as they please, whether it be to God, idols, angels, or saints?

Y _ 6. Are we given assurance repeatedly that we can believe the prophecies in this book? (19:9; 21:5; 22:6)

Y _ 7. Are we reminded again in the last chapter of Revelation of the same thing in said in the first three verses of the book? (Rev. 22:6, 10; and Rev. 1:1, 3)

Y _ 8. When Jesus says “I come quickly” is it to be understood that He is coming quickly to do the things seen in this book.

Y _ 9. As we look back in the Bible and see all of God’s judgments upon wickedness, does us assure us of the reality of the final day of judgment that He also has planned for us?

Y _ 10. Just as the O.T. prophets described the Messianic or church age in heavenly terms, this description in ch. 22 may be a description of the blessings of the church in heavenly terms. (Example: Amos 9:11-15; Isaiah 11:1-19; Acts 15:15-17; Isa. 40:11-15, etc.)
